West Southern Pines Historic Resource Survey

Project Overview

In 2023, the National Park Service allocated grant funds to the Town of Southern Pines to document African-American sites and stories in West Southern Pines. Buildings and sites serve as tangible reminders of a community's history, though the buildings derive their cultural significance from the people and stories they represent.

Community Involvement

The success of any local survey is dependent on the participation of local residents. Throughout the project we will be seeking public input regarding:

- Properties that should be documented
- People who should be interviewed
- Stories/events that should be recorded

We're specifically interested in speaking with long-term occupants of West Southern Pines; residents with connections to local schools, churches or organizations; participants in Civil Rights activities; and anyone who would like to share their stories and experiences to benefit the project. We are also interested in speaking with residents who may have specific information, memories, or experiences with the three specific properties listed below. You may contact us via the email and phone numbers below, or by filling out the form at <https://forms.gle/URGBKQisZxPebD5A7>.
